

WORLD HERITAGE OHIO

The World Heritage Challenges and Opportunities for Ohio

Including a Discussion of ISIS and the Destruction of World Heritage in the Middle East

Please join us for an informal luncheon discussion about Ohio's World Heritage nomination and the destruction of World Heritage sites in the Middle East at the hands of ISIS.

Join special guest George Papagiannis from the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), Dr. Brad Lepper from the Ohio History Connection and Patrick Terrien from the Columbus Council on World Affairs for a special luncheon at the Ohio History Center for what promises to be a thought-provoking discussion.

World Heritage Luncheon

Wednesday, April 15, 2015 • 11:30 a.m.–1 p.m.

OHIO HISTORY CENTER

800 E. 17th Ave., Columbus, OH 43211-2474

Cost: Your donation to the World Heritage Ohio initiative is appreciated

RSVP to mskrobot@ohiohistory.org by April 10

Seating is limited. Please respond at your earliest convenience.

Questions? E-mail tkleismit@ohiohistory.org or call 614.297.2355.